

Museum horizon

Invitation

The Foundation Hans Manneby Memorial Fund for Museum Development invites you to the award presentation for the fourth International Museum Prize

The Prize Winner for 2012 is Stephen Inglis
Executive Director, Aanischaaukamikw Cree Cultural Institute, Oujé-Bougoumou, Canada

- for his work, together with the Cree people, in making a dream come true
- for creating a centre in Oujé-Bougoumou, to capture, share and celebrate the James Bay Cree culture
- for bridging the traditional with the contemporary, youth with elders, the local with the global
- for linking knowledge, pride and respect with great beauty

Saturday, November 10, from 2.00 till 4.00 p.m. at Lilla Filmsalen, Vasamuseet, Stockholm

Programme

Presentation of Hans Manneby and the Memorial Fund

Presentation of the Prize winner Stephen Inglis and awarding of the 2012 Prize

Discussion and exchange of ideas

Stephen Inglis presents "Aanischaaukamikw: a museum, a collection and a community".

A panel composed of the prize winner, Stephen Inglis, Maria Dalhed, Vasamuseet and a guest will discuss "The Museum as interpreter and as an active stage for encounters of all generations". The discussion will be moderated by Nancy Hushion, Canada/France

Language: English

At the entrance: please indicate that you are attending the Hans Manneby Prize award

Stephen Inglis is an anthropologist, curator and lecturer. He holds degrees from the University of British Columbia and the University of Calcutta. He has specialized in South Asian artists and their communities and in Canadian folk art and craft traditions. Together with the James Bay Cree community Stephen Inglis has been planning and creating the Cree Cultural Institute.

The programme is organised by Hans Manneby Memorial Fund for Museum Development, Museum horizon.

In collaboration with Vasamuseet, Stockholm

Museum horizon

Since 2009 Hans Manneby Memorial Fund for Museum Development, Museum horizon, awards an international prize to a person who has contributed in an innovative manner to develop and change the role of museums in contemporary society, locally and globally. The prize has been awarded to Mr Paul Msemwa, Museum and House of Culture, Dar es Salaam, Tanzania, Ms Teresa Morales, Unión de los museos comunitarios, Oaxaca, Mexico and Ms Elizabeth Codova La'O, Museo Sang Bata Sa Negros, the Philippines.

The Board of the Foundation Hans Manneby Memorial Fund for Museum Development has five members: Ms Anita Theorell, president, Stockholm, anita.theorell@comhem.se, Ms Elisabet Olofsson, secretary, Stockholm, samp@samp.org, Mr Paul Msemwa, Museum and House of Culture, Tanzania, director@houseofculture.or.tz, Ms Anita Larsson Modin, Västarvet, anita.larsson-modin@vgregion.se, and Louise Andersson, Swedish Association of Local Authorities and Regions, Stockholm, louise.m.andersson@skl.se.